

SONIA REMBISZ RNCCM

CHICAGO METRO – NORTHWESTERN ILLINOIS – NORTHWEST SUBURBS

Schaumburg, IL

Credentials

Registered Nurse, Medical College, Poland
Certified Case Manager by, Kaplan University
Certified Case Manager by CCMC

Professional Experience

Bilingual Medical Case Manager, The ALARIS Group, Inc.®, 2007-present

- Assist injured workers to reach their maximum rehabilitative potential
- Able to communicate effectively with Polish-speaking clients
- Emphasize returning injured workers to pre-injury status safely and successfully as medically appropriate
- Coordinate services and communicate information between the injured worker, providers, employer and insurance carrier
- Provide medical case management services on long term disability cases

Field Case Manager, Coventry Workers Compensation Services, 2005

- Worked with complex work-related medical issues
- Provided superior knowledge of JA and job placement
- Experienced with providing excellent services for specific clients including ESIS, AIG, Gallagher Bassett, Sedgwick, and Liberty Mutual

Case Manager, Medicare Special Needs Patients, Aveta CarePartners of North American Medical Management, 2005-2006

- Developed protocols for innovative Medicare SNP for people with cardiac, pulmonary, and pre-renal disease
- Served as essential part of sales and marketing team to enroll members, give clinical presentations at seminars and health fairs and market to physicians
- Worked with primary and specialist physicians, member and their family to identify needs, propose solutions, coordinate care and provide member education, resulting in improved outcomes for chronically ill members
- Worked with IT to develop and improve case management electronic record system
- Served as member of task force to develop policies and procedures for new SNP sites, including operations, case management, physician relations and team development

ICU Charge Nurse and Preceptor, Resurrection Health Care at Westlake Hospital, 2000-2005

- Responsibilities included allocation of assignments, providing adequate staffing levels, supervision of unit admissions and transfers and training and ongoing education of staff

Charge Nurse, Telemetry Unit, St. Alexius Medical Center, 1998-2000

- Evaluated patient conditions, assigned patient care, communicated with the house nursing supervisor and attending physicians, as well as maintained effective communication with staff, patients, and families
- Developed patient and family education programs to monitor patient progress

Charge Nurse, Intensive Care Unit, Vencor Chicago North, 1991-1998

- Cared for ventilator and critically ill patients
- Involved in educational opportunities and learning, attended seminars and training and joined AACCN to further skills development